

Please stop this infernal media consolidation! Please do not repeal the rules on Cross-Ownership. We already have far too much consolidation now as almost all media outlets are owned by a few mega-corporations and the only information we get is that which has already been screened through the interests of mega-business. This does not make for an adequately informed citizenry and without an adequately informed citizenry there can be no true democracy.